MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

The past, present – and indeed a glimpse into the future – of Brisbane buildings will be celebrated for the ninth consecutive year at Brisbane Open House 2018. Examples of outstanding architecture over the ages will include 114 buildings, with 40 opening their doors as part of the program for the first time.

The weekend holds special significance for Kaye and I, as we will once again welcome visitors to Government House. We are always proud to see the excitement of people who pass through the historic Fernberg gates as we continue our commitment to making it a house for all Queenslanders.

As patron of Brisbane Open House, I thank the board, executive, staff, volunteers and building owners who make this wonderful event possible. Thank you also to the thousands of people who will visit some of the city's most iconic structures – and more than a few hidden gems – over the course of the weekend.

His Excellency the Honourable
Paul de Jersey AC
Governor of Queensland

MESSAGE FROM THE CHAIR

Brisbane Open House is once again offering unparalleled access to our city. For one weekend a year this event gives us the opportunity to showcase and celebrate our built environment, heritage places and unlock the passion of our design community.

Now in our ninth year with sights firmly set on our tenth birthday in 2019 – we are proud to deliver an enhanced program of events which allows all of us to explore the fabric of our great city. This year with over 110 buildings, 30 events, plus concerts and walking tours I am sure there will be something which piques your interest.

On behalf of the board I would like to thank all who have contributed to this year's event – our sponsors and partners, the individuals and organisations who are opening their doors. And of course, we cannot do this without the ongoing support the hundreds of passionate volunteers who assist us over the weekend.

Malcolm Middleton OAM LFRAIA
Queensland Government Architect
Chair Brisbane Open House

MESSAGE FROM THE MINISTER

As Minister for State Development, Manufacturing, Infrastructure and Planning I am passionate about working with industry and community to create the cities and towns where we want to live, work and play.

Brisbane Open House is a rare opportunity for us all to explore, celebrate and learn – not only who we are as a community, but where we have come from and where we are going.

Through profiling our architecture, design and engineering industries BOH is a great tool for us to support new, emerging and existing industries.

I would encourage you all to participate this year by visiting a building, getting a behind the scenes look at a manufacturing space or joining in on one of the multiple free discussions about placemaking, a major project or design thinking.

I'm very proud to continue our support for this event and I am looking forward to the weekend, I hope you will join me.

Cameron Dick MP
Minister for State Development, Manufacturing, Infrastructure and Planning

MESSAGE FROM THE MINISTER

Brisbane Open House is a reflection of our capital city's rich diversity in contemporary and historic architecture.

Now in its ninth year, Brisbane Open House continues to evolve and expand, opening doors to even more extraordinary, and sometimes secretive, buildings. It also continues to stimulate interest and conversations about architecture, design and heritage through an eclectic range of events and activities.

The opportunity to visit some of our most treasured and unique heritage places has always been the highlight of my Brisbane Open House experience. I strongly believe the stories behind these places are just as important as their material elements.

This year you can discover the stories behind more than 60 heritage places—some that have never been open to the public before.

I encourage you to explore this year's program to engage with, and celebrate Brisbane's heritage and diverse built environment.

Leeanne Enoch MP

Minister for Environment and the Great Barrier Reef
Minister for Science and Minister for the Arts

MESSAGE FROM THE LORD MAYOR

Brisbane is a great place to live, work and relax, with our city's history and character part of the things we love. Brisbane Open House showcases the best of our city's heritage buildings and contemporary urban design.

BOH is more than just buildings. Explore two days of design at Council's first Design Marketplace in Burnett Lane. Enjoy stimulating designer talk sessions, and market stalls with local artists. When the sun sets on Saturday, the Desire Lines laneway party gets underway.

Also for the first time, Council will open the doors to our city's oldest swimming pools. Overflowing with history, explore Spring Hill Baths' colourful interior, heritage of the Valley Baths and James Birrell's free-form Centenary Pool Complex.

I am delighted to extend Council's support of this program again this year and I thank the organisations, partners and volunteers for their efforts in making Brisbane Open House such a popular event on our city's calendar.

Graham Quirk

Lord Mayor of Brisbane

MESSAGE FROM BOH AMBASSADOR

Whether you are passionate about quintessential Queensland architecture, a heritage buff or just plain curious to see inside an award-winning home – Brisbane Open House has something for everyone.

I am proud to be the Ambassador for Brisbane Open House, while my career is firmly in the sporting arena I have long had a passion and keen interest in architecture and design – this event allows me to indulge in this passion. Plus, I firmly believe all of us should take this unique opportunity to explore our great city in a way which is not normally available.

If you are interested in learning about the technology and logistics behind how the Port of Brisbane works, getting a behind the scenes glimpse at Queensland Theatre or taking a tour of the Old Windmill Tower – I encourage you all to try something new and explore a building you have always been curious about.

Darren Lockyer

There wasn't a lot to celebrate in Brisbane in the 70's, 80's with Joh Bjelke Petersen at the helm. Many young people felt there was no place for them in this conservative little town and a generation of agitators was born! Enter, radio station 4ZZZ.....

4ZZZ in Fortitude Valley began as a radical alternative to mainstream news to promote a sense of engagement and activism in community life and to amplify the voice of Brisbane. It was a megaphone for the musical and political movement that built a community network in Fortitude Valley. The place was a haven for sub-cultures and live music venues like The Zoo gave young bands an opportunity to strut their stuff on a larger scale.

Join the keepers of Brisbane's musical heritage for a discussion on the people, places and social issues that have shaped Brisbane's counter-culture.

Stick around after the talk for a screening of Peter Macpherson's 'A Vision of Hell', originally released in 1982 this super 8 film features footage of many of Brisbane's underground greats including The Pits, This Five Minutes, Tex Deadly & the Dum Dums, Xero and more. Presented by BOH, 4ZZZ and The Zoo.

Introvert? Extrovert? Brisbane is having an identity crisis.

Once considered a big country town, Brisbane is in the midst of rapid change, with major developments across the city set to completely transform the Queensland capital by 2022.

More than $10 billion worth of projects are currently under construction. At the same time, Brisbane residents yearn to create a more close-knit community with an emphasis on social enterprise, better designed housing, greater access to greenspace and more sustainable transport options.

In this light-hearted, old-school debate, six leading architects, designers, planners and business leaders will pitch their arguments - for and against this controversial topic.

Who will Brisbane turn out to be? Introvert or extrovert? Is Brisbane having an identity crisis? Presented by BOH in partnership with Brickworks and Bacchus Wine Merchant.

TUESDAY 9 OCTOBER // 6pm-8pm
 Hames Sharley Studio, Level 2, 235 Edward Street Brisbane
FREE // No bookings required

Originally Australia's cities took on the grids and patterns that remain recognisable today. Over the past century cities have grown and evolved as clusters of linked, urban hubs with central business districts connecting to outlying suburbs. The current model of Australian city planning is one that looks to provide 'Mars Bar living' - contained places where residents can work, rest and play. Suburbs like Albion, Fortitude Valley and West End reflect this - where urban nodes accommodate residential, commercial and retail. To an extent each hub acts as their own micro economy, supporting the greater, surrounding urban city. Presented by Hames Sharley.

Ripple Iron is a family business started in 1991 by architect Russell Hall. Russell has been experimenting with corrugated iron since he was a 20-year-old student, when he made a chair from corrugated iron, receiving comments from his lecturer 'that would be a bit of a pile buster Mr Hall'.

Through trialing different materials and thicknesses, Russell has created a range of products produced for both decorative and functional purposes – including street furniture, lightshades, stubby holders and mailboxes!

Ripple Iron street furniture has stood the test of time in schools, railway platforms, parks, shopping centres and hospitals - bins, seats and shelters supplied 20 years ago can still be seen in use today.

Join Russell on this exclusive tour of his workshop and learn about the creative and practical process of turning corrugated iron into something unexpected!

Russell is reactionary to the word creative ever since reading the Antoni Gaudi quote 'man does not create he discovers, originality is a return to the origins'.

TREASURY

PROUDLY PRESERVING QUEENSLAND'S HISTORY

Treasury Brisbane has been an active member of the local community for more than 20 years, located in the heritage state-owned Treasury and Land Administration buildings.

Our parent company, The Star Entertainment Group, has spent more than $55 million on award-winning conservation work to restore, repurpose, and maintain these beautiful sandstone buildings.

We are also part of the Destination Brisbane Consortium developing the transformational Queen's Wharf Brisbane integrated resort.

It includes one of the greatest collections of culturally significant heritage buildings and places in Australia since the early 1800s.

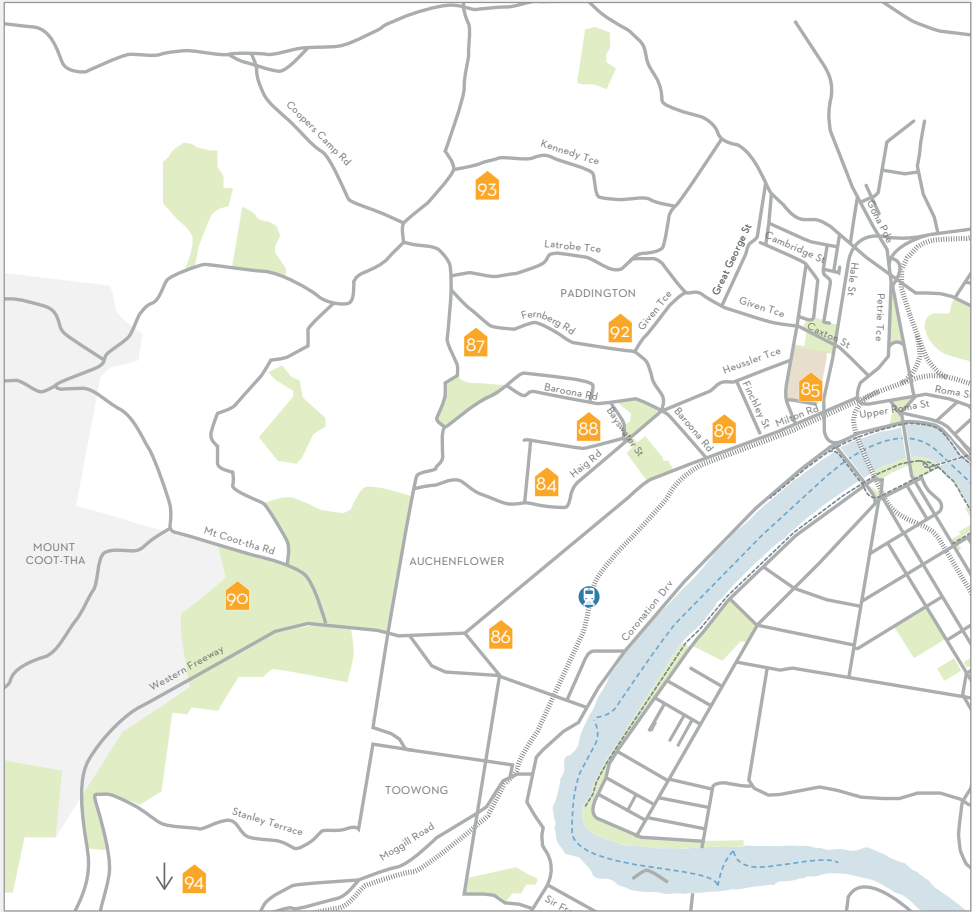

Through our development, we look forward to bringing them back to life and providing locals and visitors the chance to explore our city's fascinating Aboriginal and European heritage.

SPECIAL THANKS

The Brisbane Open House team would like to sincerely thank all the building owners and managers for opening your buildings this year.
Your generosity is greatly appreciated!

Each year Brisbane Open House would not be made possible were it not for the dedication, curiosity and generosity of our hundreds of volunteers - thank you!
